

"THE MOST FULFILLING THREE DAYS OF MY LIFE"

It was thrilling to see so many young people, parents and grandparents at Break Forth Canada 2006.

BREAK FORTH CANADA 2006 is history!

We hit an estimated attendance of 10,000 again this year. God worked in wonderful ways at the leading Equipping and Renewing conference in North America. We have been swamped with stories of God's rejuvenation of many hearts and equipping of many minds. Here is just one:

"I have just returned from Edmonton, I have spent the most fulfilling three days of my life at Break Forth Canada 2006."

"I filled out the comments form at the back of the program. To tell you the truth I'm not sure exactly what I wrote, it could have easily been a bunch of gibberish I was so excited when I wrote it. So

Rebecca St. James ministered to the "young at heart"

I figure I should send an e-mail to make sure you receive my thank you from the very deepest (I mean really, really deepest) part of my heart."

"I have always been a Christian, that is to say I have always believed in Jesus Christ and that he died on the cross for us, however until this past weekend I did not know what people meant when they said they felt Him. Now I know. The Holy Spirit came to me and consumed me, He filled my heart to capacity with joy like I have never experienced, a joy so powerful it made me weep for the first time in as long as I can remember. Then, as if that wasn't enough, at the same time I was feeling overwhelming joy, like there was no room for any other emotion in my soul, I felt at the very least as much conviction as joy, I honestly did not know one body could feel so much feeling at one time. I have to give my wife the greatest thanks, for she is the one who persuaded me to attend if for no other reason than to keep her company, who knew? (other than God of course) and finally a huge thank you to everyone who had anything to do with the planning, organizing, the speakers (I learned so much even though this is just the beginning), the performers and the volunteers."

"I would also like to send out a thank you to all the other worshippers without whom this could not have taken place. THANK YOU, THANK YOU & GOD BLESS."

Thousands across denominations, ages, races and preferences join their voices in worshipping the one true God. A glimpse of heaven!

God was at work in thousands of hearts at Break Forth Canada 2006. Here are a few photos to give you a glimpse into what He accomplished:

Graham Kendrick leads in worship; Ken Davis was hilarious and powerful!; Twila Paris led in grace-filled worship

Patsy Clairmont had us rolling in the aisles; Worship across generations; Bill Hybels called us to faithful leadership

We have so many quotes from people whose lives were touched in great ways. Here is just one of the many:

"Break Forth, I had heard, could change a person. I am a person who can understand that now. I have learned that there are places to go to find enough stillness to rediscover that God is still God. Before that weekend I was really starting to question my existence in the world, and wondered if it would ever get better. Sometimes God takes us to events to show us something small, and sometimes he gives us something far greater than we could have imagined. Break Forth was a short time but in that short time God took me to a whole new level of trust. Break Forth was an event that changed my heart, my soul, and my trust in God. I look forward to Break Forth 2007."

Once again, God accomplished powerful things in the lives of thousands. Will you join us in 2007 to see God at work again?

BECAUSE YOU

Care Share

From Nicaragua to Latvia

— WE CAN

With Arlen and Elsa Salte

God's Love "Breaks Forth" in Nicaragua

God used you in Nicaragua, where we were able to spend time with many of the children you sponsored through Compassion at Break Forth Canada 2005. We saw children surrounded by oppressive poverty. Without you they would have very little hope. Yet, through your sponsorship we saw hope come alive in their eyes. They received a healthy diet, an education, the love of caring Compassion workers and most of all, Godly spiritual nurture.

The media is driven from one major tragedy to the next. Yet, in order to build a sustainable foundation for generations we need to be more proactive than reactive.

God's Love to Latvia

Latvia is a country of pristine beauty, rich history and open-hearted people. It is also a nation that has endured a blood-soaked history. From 1940-1949, Latvia lost 35% of its population to war, deportation, exile and mass murder. Then the terrible oppression under Soviet rule came. Many Christians were martyred for their faith. In 1991 Latvia gained independence.

Along with Paul Anderson and an entire team of leaders, we saw wonderful ministry take place.

You blessed tens of thousands of people this past year through your prayers and gifts. Thank you for letting us be your hands of love extended.

We held a conference with leaders from as far away as South Africa and Brazil. We held worship services, leadership training seminars, and prayer services. We were blessed to spend time with government leaders who seek to have God first in Latvia. We believe that Latvia will be a lighthouse to countries around the world.

This September we are launching a 'Break Forth Latvia' conference. This will be a massive undertaking but we want to step forward boldly in faith.

Revival 'Breaks Forth' in Finland!

Arlen has ministered in Finland many times over the years. Several years ago God said, "You will not return to Finland until I bring revival." Finland has been a very spiritually dark place. Yet, God is bringing revival to Finland through what is being known around the world as the 'Nokia Revival.' This was God's call to Arlen and Elsa to go. We were able to minister in a major revival as well as a leadership conference. Many people came to faith in Christ and God restored many hearts.

You Make it Possible!

Your gifts and prayers gird us up and move us out. You give us the encouragement to step beyond our comfort zones for the sake of the Gospel. Please continue to remember us in your prayers. Your support through the year can be used to change lives around the world. As we lead in worship, train leaders and share the Gospel by God's grace we will see many transformed for all eternity.

Share God's Love in Nicaragua

If you would like to see the work of Compassion in Nicaragua you may want to join Arlen and Elsa on an upcoming trip to Nicaragua. We will see the work of Compassion first hand and will share the love with hundreds of children and their families who are being lifted from poverty. Please contact us right away if you would like to join us.

"HE'S BAAAAACK!"

by Ken Davis

A woman happened to be looking out the window of her home one day. She was horrified to see her German Shepherd shaking the life out of the neighbor's rabbit. Her family had been quarreling with these neighbors; this was certainly going to make matters worse. She grabbed a broom and ran outside, pummeling the pooch until he dropped a rabbit now covered with dog-spit — and extremely dead. After a moment's consideration, the woman lifted the rabbit with the end of the broom and brought it into the house. She dumped its lifeless body into the bathtub and turned on the shower. When the water running off the rabbit was clean, she rolled him over and rinsed the other side.

Now she had a plan. She found her hairdryer and blew the rabbit dry. Using an old comb, she groomed the rabbit until he looked pretty good. Then, when the neighbor wasn't looking, she hopped over the fence, snuck across the backyard, and propped him up in his cage. No way was she taking the blame for this. About an hour later, she heard screams coming from the neighbor's yard. She ran outside, pretending she didn't know what was going on. "What's happened?" she asked innocently.

Her neighbor came running to the fence. All the blood had drained from her face. "Our rabbit, our rabbit!" she blubbered. "He died two weeks ago, we buried him - and now he's back!"

Had the neighbor poked the rabbit or tried to play with him, she would have discovered the truth: The rabbit was dead. And playing with a fluffed-up dead rabbit isn't much fun.

The same is true with fluffed-up dead people. One of the disadvantages of living in an affluent society - meaning most of us - is that it's too easy to get dead and buried before we're dead and buried. We clutch our material possessions and social status tightly. We're afraid to take risks, stand out in a crowd, or do anything that could make us look different. In a world of people whose first priority is to maintain the status quo, simply looking alive is too dangerous.

I once spoke with a news anchorman who hated nearly every aspect of his job. When I asked him why he didn't quit, he said he'd come too far to turn back now. To search for something more significant in life would mean taking a pay cut and relinquishing a few job perks. So every day he gets up and heads for a job he hates, so he won't lose what he's gained. And just what has he gained? It sounds like a fluffed-up dead rabbit to me. All over North America people remain in jobs they hate so they can buy stuff they don't need to impress people who don't care. God created you for so much more than that. Could it be time for you to take a deep breath and really live again?

Take some risks. God's plan for your life was never about being propped up in a cage. I've met dozens of people who finally trusted God and made their escapes. Some changed jobs; some changed attitudes; some took the initiative and summoned up the courage to live out their convictions.

There are some who are living with fewer financial resources than before, but they're experiencing an excitement and a renewed faith they never knew was possible. The renewed fire in their lives leaves no doubt they're alive.

Jesus is about life. If you feel as if you've been shaken, hosed off, and propped up to dry, chances are it's time to take a look around. God wants you to live. People will be delighted an amazed that you're back.

"He is no fool who gives up what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose". - Jim Elliot

We're almost 30! We will celebrate the Ministries' 30th Anniversary in 2007.

• Through Break Forth Canada we have seen nearly 1,000 children sponsored. We are partnering with Compassion Canada to bring food, health, the Gospel, and Godly education to children throughout the world.

Arlen and Elsa Salte will be leading a trip to Nicaragua to see Compassion at work and to share the love of God with hundreds of children. If you would like to join us on this life-changing adventure and perhaps visit the child you sponsor in Nicaragua ... please contact us ... we'd love to have you come!

In 2007 we will be changing our name from New Creation Ministries to Break Forth Ministries to better reflect our activities. Our mandate of seeing people reached with the Gospel in creative ways will always stay the same.

• New Creation Ministries and Break Forth is broadcasting to the world. Check out our free internet 'radio station' Podcast by clicking on the link at www.breakforthcanada.com for free interviews with Ken Davis, Dr. Peter Wagner, Tim Hughes, Phil Keaggy and more. Also check the free downloadable songs and videos.

• We have trained thousands of praise team members, pastors and lay leaders at our Break Forth Regional Worship Workshops. Each Break Forth Regional Workshop ends with a Sunday evening Community Worship concert. God has been moving in powerful ways in these worship concerts. Here is a part of one quote we recently received:

"I am from Venezuela, but I am living here since September with my husband and my son. I went to the Concert on Sunday. I never expect how powerful, amazing and good it will be. Personally I received a lot from the Lord. My father was kidnapped and killed by three guys when I was 14 years old. That was very strong experience in my life. That I remember I cried only twice, so during the concert I could stop crying. It was amazing how I felt the presence of God in my life and His healing. Thank you so much for all your wonderful work."

LEADERSHIP: A HIGH CALLING

by Brian Doerksen

Leadership is ... a dynamic process in which a man or woman with God-given capacity influences a specific group of God's people toward His purposes for the group.

David is a nearly perfect archetype for us as worship leaders, because he learned how to worship God in secret, before he had a position of leadership. How did God prepare David? Through the quiet discipline of raising sheep. God will use those life experiences, both painful and positive, to shape and prepare our characters for service.

In the sixteenth chapter of 1 Samuel, we get some of the background of how David was chosen to reign as king. Samuel had to ask Jesse if there were any other sons. Well, sure, there's one more. Enter David, who had been with the sheep, and who had been overlooked even by his own father. Then the Lord said to Samuel, "Rise and anoint him. He is the one."

It's hard not to be chosen. Ask David's brothers. But it's just as hard to be chosen. If you're not chosen, you've got to deal with jealousy and judgments. If you're chosen, you've got to deal with insecurity and frustration. David would be asking, "Why did I have to be chosen and have my brothers hate me?"

God knows how to use any and every circumstance to refine, purify, and conform us to the character of his son. If He doesn't choose us to be a leader, He's doing it because He loves us. If He does choose us to be a leader, He's doing it because He loves us.

David was chosen, in part, because his relationship with God and his heart of worship was cultivated when he was alone with the sheep.

There is no substitute for being alone with God and cultivating your worship relationship with Him. God is jealous for that. When David was king, he probably thanked God for all the time God had set him apart through work circumstances. He wrote some of the most incredible love songs to God there.

If you want to be a leader, you must cultivate an appetite, or at least a tolerance, for that place of aloneness.

What happened to David happens to us as leaders when we allow him to take us through this process of preparation. Hopefully you'll learn to fear God more than you fear man. That may explain the incredible courage David displayed at the valley of Elah when he challenged Goliath. We see the fruit of that process expressed in some of David's psalms.

"Teach me your way, O LORD, and I will walk in your truth; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name" (Psalm 86:11). "In God I trust I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?" (Psalm 56:11)

Another result is that you'll acknowledge that God gave you that position of leadership. David knew he wasn't elected king over the people; God put him there. He feared God more than he feared the people.

Brian Doerksen will lead in worship, teach an Intensive Learning Workshop and lead in classes at Break Forth Canada 2007.
